

Gift Card Gauge

Q3 2024

Consumers prepare for another costly holiday season

Since inflation doesn't take a break for the holidays, consumers are bracing for yet another pricey holiday season. One-third of consumers plan to spend more on holiday gifts this year, while only 14% will spend less. For the third year in a row, holiday spending is up—from 27% in 2023 and 21% in 2022. Among those spending less, 66% cite inflation and higher costs as the main reasons. As merchants prepare for the holidays, identifying ways to help consumers get the most bang for their buck will help drive greater sales.

Consumers are getting an early jump on shopping

Over 40% of shoppers have started their holiday shopping. Why? Most are looking for ways to combat inflation.
